FOR HUMAN RESOURCE PROFESSIONALS

In today's downsized, outsourced, stressful work environment, it's more challenging than ever to maintain a comfortable and secure working environment.

I have been retained by employers for cases involving:

sexual harassment diaries & calendar records

anonymous hate mail

slandorous graffiti

amended employee evaluations forged employee evaluations fabricated work calendars and time sheets

internal employee theft

There is nothing more demoralizing to moral nor damaging to work productivity than to have employee suspicion and gossip around an unresolved situation. These negative issues need to be dealt with promptly to ensure a sense of security and continued employer support within your organization. Hiring a handwriting expert can help you

Stop the perpetrator in his/her tracks and prevent similar copycat incidents

Avoid a lawsuit

Have evidence for employee termination

Stop gossip and get business back to normal

Provide validity to wronged parties

Resolve the problem in a timely manner

Please call the office for a confidential consultation. We will explain what you need to get started.
